Compass and Attendance

We hope that every parent now has full use and understanding of Compass. If you have any difficulty, please contact the office on colaiстеcc@lmetb.ie and we can support you with the log in and instructions. Parents are required to note every absence on Compass. This data will come to the attention of the Year Head and will be recorded on our database. This also applies for late arrival to school. Please note that if a student is late for school 3 times, they are enrolled for a punctuality reflection on a Friday lunchtime. We want to instil a commitment to punctuality in all students and ask all families to have a robust routine to support them being on time in the morning.

Attendance

- Attendance is the first step to academic success.
- There are 166 school days in the year and every one of them is important.
- Attendance is an important life skill that will help your child both now and in their future.
- It will benefit a student's well-being, education, and career.
- Improved literacy and numeracy skills, even among those students who are struggling in school.
- Students who frequently attend school feel more connected to their community and develop strong social skills and friendships.

Parents / Guardians can help make Every School Day Count

- Establish a good routine in the mornings and evenings so your child is prepared for the school day ahead.
- Be organised. Make sure they have everything ready from the night before.
- Have their coats and bags at the door.
- Have their lunch made.
- Have their uniform/PE uniform ready.

Parents / Guardians seeking meetings or appointment

You will appreciate that school is a busy place with all staff fully engaged in scheduled work. Visitors to school can only be admitted by prior appointment. Please email school on colaistecc@lmetb.ie to request an appointment, detailing the reason for the request.

While we do try our best to be as open as possible to the community, we will not meet visitors who arrival without a prior appointment.

Medical Needs

Parents are reminded to email school if there is a medical condition we need to be aware of. We will then contact you if there is a need for additional information / consent documentation.

Homework and Study

Coláiste Chú Chulainn has an ambition for all students to excel in their academic endeavours. This means that we give homework, revision, and study tasks each day to all our students. Students should record this in their student Journal and should be busy with school work each evening. We ask that families ensure your student has the time and space to do this important work. We also require that guardians and parents check the Student Journal every week at a minimum and be part of the student's success.

The government and Department of Education now provide free copy books and materials to all 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Years. This will roll out to all senior students next year. This means that all students must have all their work neat, tidy and in the correct copies. We suggest that guardians read your student's work on a regular basis and discuss what they are learning.

As a school, we appreciate your support for our work and your student's progress.

Punctuality / Uniform / Mobile Phones

School has clear policies and procedures around these matters. Please note that if a student is late for school 3 times, they are enrolled for a punctuality reflection on a Friday lunchtime. We want to instil a commitment to punctuality in all students and ask all families to have a robust routine to support them being on time in the morning.

Parents & Guardians Bulletin Coláiste Chú Chulainn

Issue 2 October 2025

Our uniform policy is available on our website. A school jacket is required. Non-school jackets are confiscated and kept safe until the end of the day. We remind all that leggings are not part of the uniform – plain navy tracksuit bottoms are required for PE, with plain black runner shoes.

Mobile phone use is absolutely banned in school. They must be switched off from entering the school gate to leaving the campus at the end of the day. Phones may be confiscated, and a parent will be required to come to school to collect it.

Healthy Eating Policy

We remind all parents/guardians that school provides a free snack at 10.50am and a free sandwich at 1.05 pm. All students should bring an empty bottle as we have filtered water towers for them to drink fresh water.

Our school's Healthy Eating Policy prohibits sugary, salty, fatty foods. Students are NOT allowed take items such as sweets, lollies, crisps, chocolate, and minerals to school. We have asked local shops to stop selling these items to children in the mornings.

This policy is to ensure the best health, wellbeing, concentration, and dental hygiene for our young people. It is not acceptable for students to bring unhealthy foods to school. We instruct students and you teach your children to avoid lollipops, packets of biscuits and crisps. So, together, we will ensure they do not have them in school.

Vapes and E-Cigarettes

Vapes, cigarettes and e-cigarettes are prohibited in schools in Ireland. It is illegal to sell these products to young people. We take a dim view of vaping in our school and remind all guardians that a student who is found to be vaping, in possession of a vape, or involved with assisting others to be involved in vaping will be suspended.

We ask that all guardians discuss the dangers of vaping and smoking with your students.

Proud of Our Heritage

Heritage and culture are important to all of us. We want to cherish the heritage of all students in our school. We now have a Culture Cabinet where we display items from across the world. If you have a souvenir from a country or region around the world, we would love if you donated it for display in our cabinet.

Parentline Supports for Parent in Non-Violent Resistance (NVR) Programme

Parentline offers a Non-Violent Resistance Programme (NVR) to support parents with information and guidance on how they can both prevent and respond to the controlling behaviours of their children. Child to parent violence can be physical violence but it also includes verbal abuse, emotional abuse, manipulation, intimidation and any other coercive and controlling behaviours.

Why would a parent need NVR support?

Sometimes parents or carers are afraid of their own child because of the abusive and violent behaviour directed towards them. NVR aims to end certain patterns of behaviour and repair the damaged relationship between the parent and the child. It supports parents to change the ways in which they deal with violent, aggressive and controlling behaviours. Parents are supported in developing skills to deescalate the abusive behaviour. Parents learn to increase their positive presence in their child's life. It helps parents to understand that it is the behaviour that is the problem and not the child.

How is NVR delivered by Parentline?

The NVR programme requires the commitment of taking a one hour a week phone call from a highly trained, experienced Parentline volunteer. This is done in a confidential manner. The programme can last from anywhere between 4 and 8 weeks depending on how well and quickly it is implemented. It is usually offered to parents of children aged from 12 years to 17 years. Parentline is open Monday to Thursday from 10:00am to 9:00pm and Fridays from 10:00am to 7:00pm. Call 01 873 3500.

Advice for Parents about Cyberbullying

<https://www.webwise.ie/parents/>

THE INTERNET PRESENTS wonderful opportunities for children, from education to entertainment.

Despite the terrific opportunity it represents, the internet contains its fair share of safety concerns that all parents worry about. Chief amongst them is cyberbullying, which can affect any child on the internet. The Safer Internet Day 2023 Report and Research Findings, which is available to view on Webwise, noted that 45.3% of teenagers in Ireland had witnessed some kind of mistreatment online, meaning it's more important than ever for parents and teachers to speak with children about their online activities.

As shown in the above report, cyberbullying is sadly one of the more common negative experiences children encounter online in Ireland. The effects of cyberbullying can last a long time and affect a person in many ways. However, there are steps we can take to support children and teens online.

There is lots of helpful advice for families and schools available from Webwise. These include the Parent's Hub, which provides helpful talking points and conversation starters that can help parents to deal with conflict around technology use at home.

What is cyberbullying?

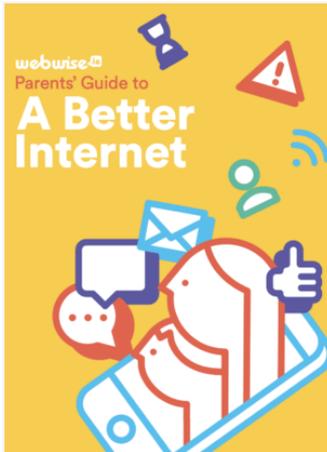

Cyberbullying is bullying with the use of digital technologies. It can take place on social media, messaging platforms, gaming platforms, and smartphones.

It is important to note that Cyberbullying can happen to anyone. It is always wrong, and it should never be overlooked or ignored.

Children may not be aware of the emotional damage cyberbullying, and all other forms of bullying can cause to the victim. Educating your children on this topic and enforcing the importance of not standing by while someone else is being bullied will help contribute to responsible internet use.

As cyberbullying takes place on the internet, we do not see the victim in front of us. You cannot tell the impact cyberbullying has on a person as a result.

What parents can do to prevent cyberbullying?

Prevention is better than cure. Talk to your child about online bullying before it happens.

1. Early conversations

It is never too late to start conversations and instruct children about safe and respectful communication. An important part of the conversation is around developing good habits around how they use technology, reviewing the settings and talking to them about making friends online.

2. Privacy settings and features

Privacy settings go a long way in keeping your child safe online. Your child can choose who gets to be friends with them online and stay protected from other users. Familiarise yourself with the apps they are using and go through the settings together. Ensure your child understands the safety features, such as blocking and reporting. Talk to them about who they are connecting with and avoid having profiles set to public.

3. Encourage positive connection and respectful communication

Encourage your child to treat others with respect online in all of their interactions. Remind them that they play a role in making the internet a friendly place for all. Open a dialogue with them about how to be a good friend on the internet, including when they witness cyberbullying taking place. If they see cyberbullying take place, let them know that they can report it to help those that are being bullied.

4. Asking for help

Talk to your child about the steps to take when they need help. Establishing rules around what is acceptable on the internet can help guide them in this regard. They should not feel nervous or fearful to approach you if they need help, so reminding them that you support them and are willing to listen can be extremely helpful.

5. What to do if something goes wrong

Remind your child that they can come to you if anything upsets them online. If cyberbullying has occurred, remember to keep the messages and instances of abuse. Report the abusive parties to the moderators of the platform where it took place. Banning your child from using the internet or taking away their smartphone can damage trust and may make them less likely to come forward if cyberbullying occurs again.

Remain calm and do not alarm them by taking immediate action they are not comfortable with. But it should also be made clear to them that in order to help them, you may have to speak with their teachers and the parents of other children who may be involved and contact the Gardaí in serious cases.
